Windows Shortcut key:

Left Click: Choose and Confirm and change status

Right Click: Freeze and Unfreeze the images

F1 and F2: The same function with scroll button to scroll up or down to change the Gain, show TGC, choose image frame

F8: Replace the function of pressing scroll button of the mouse to release the cursor

F10: Save the images quickly

F11: Enter different Zoom Mode.

1. Enter C mode, you may use left mouse, right mouse and scroll button. You can also press F1 and F2, the same function with scroll button to scroll up or down, press F8 to replace the function of pressing scroll button of the mouse to release the cursor.

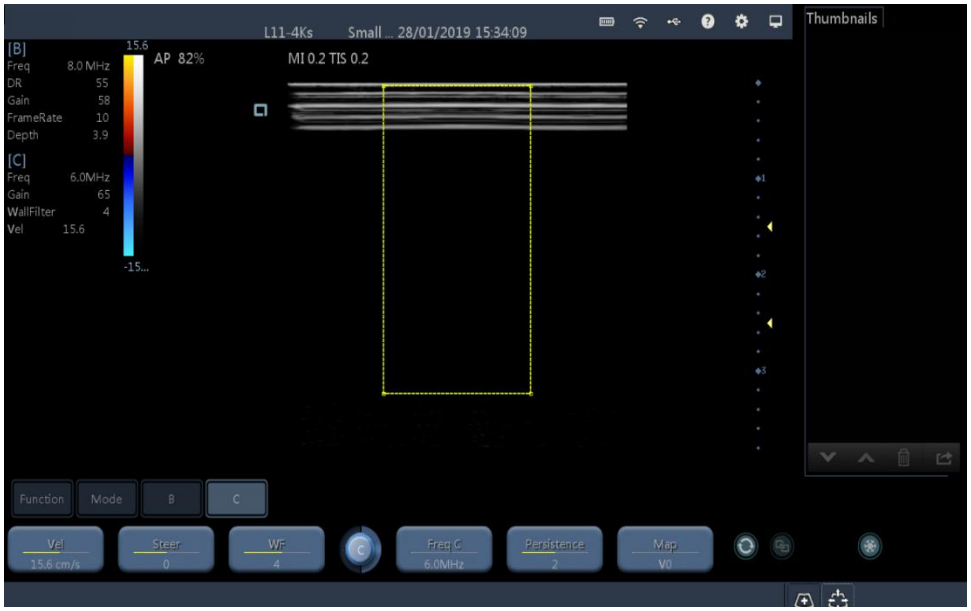
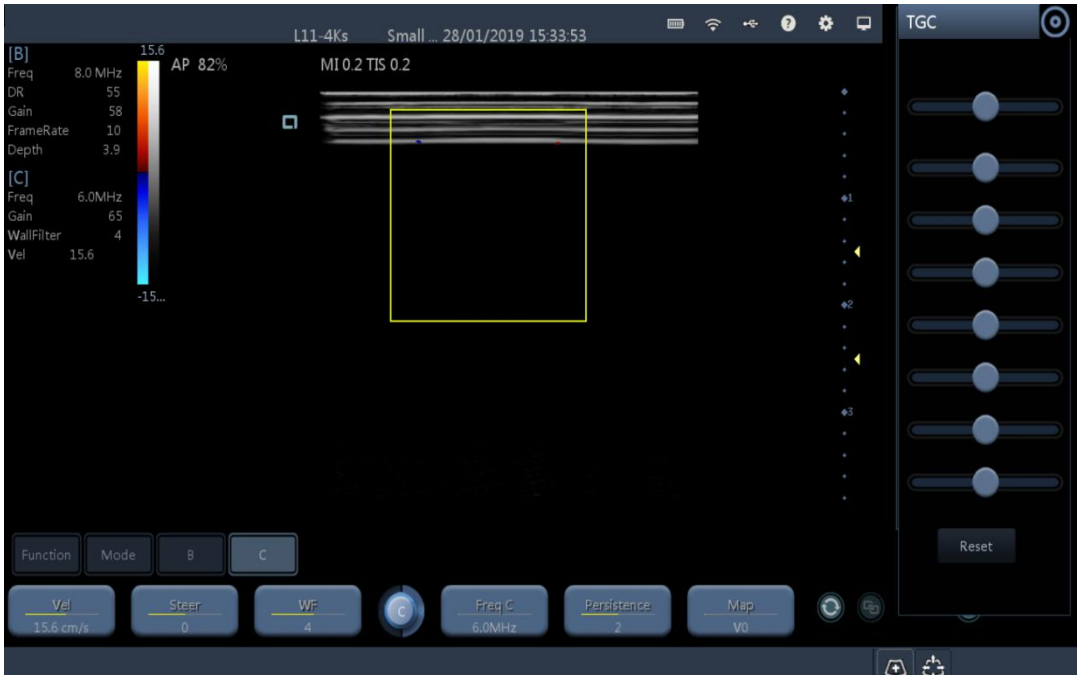
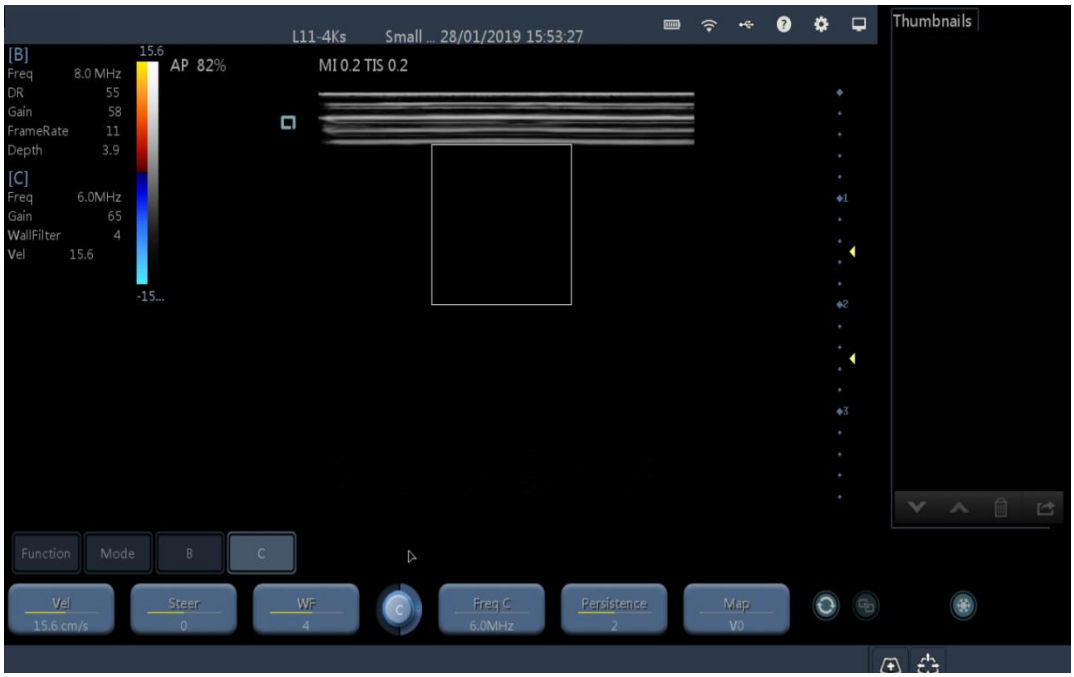
2. Left click the mouse once, then you can adjust the size of sample window



3. Left click the mouse again, the sample size is fixed, you can drag the mouse to change the position of sample window

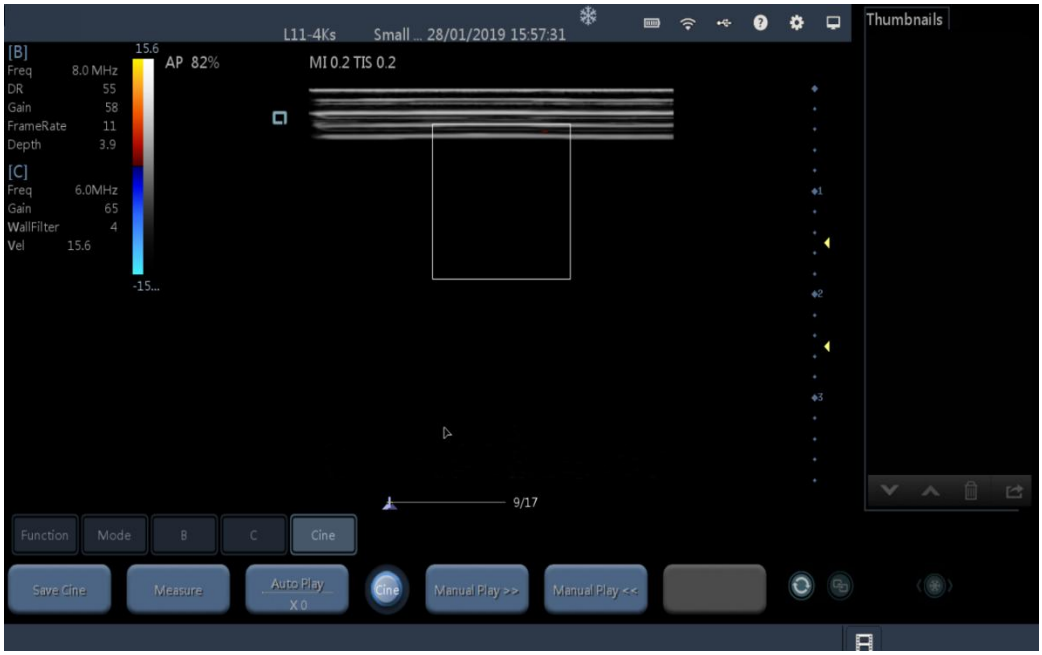


4. Middle Click scroll button of the mouse or press F8 to release the cursor, then you can move the cursor and choose other functions or change the parameters

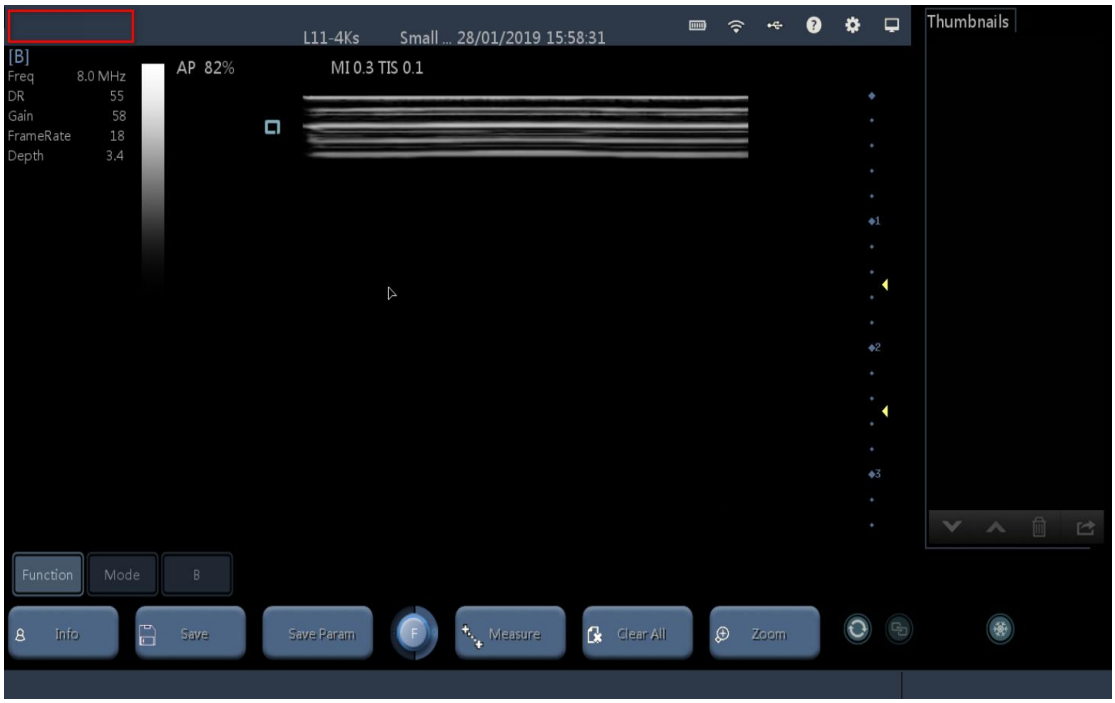


5. Right click to freeze the image, scroll up or down, it can adjust each frame image, middle click scroll button to release

cursor, right click again to unfreeze the image



Click this part to enter system setup.



You can change different parameters and put some information here. e.g. Hospital Information and so on.